Celebrate Black History Month in Jersey City Events Feature Dance, Art, Spoken Word and Oratory Contest

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy, the Jersey City Municipal Council and the Division of Cultural Affairs have prepared a series of events to commemorate Black History Month in Jersey City.

“February is Black History Month and is a time to celebrate the spirit of each generation of African Americans and pay tribute to their many achievements,” said Mayor Healy. “The greatness of our city lies within the rich diversity of our people. The contributions of the African-American community play a vital role in the success of our economic, social and cultural progress in Jersey City.”

To kick off this month-long celebration, a flag raising ceremony was held last week, as city officials and community members raised the Black Liberation Flag over City Hall.

An annual event that not only educates our youth on the role the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. played in the Civil Rights Movement, but also teaches them how to be public speakers, is the MLK Oratory Contest. The contestants, who are separated into two grade categories – the grade 3 to 5 group and the grade 6 to 8 group – must memorize and present an original work of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., which is judged by representatives of the business community.

Now in its 13th year, the MLK Oratory contest is sponsored by the City of Jersey City and the Bank of America. Public, private and charter schools across the city are notified of the contest, and asked to hold an internal selection process in which they send two students to compete in each grade category. Grades 3-5 will compete on Wednesday, February 13, 2008, while grades 6-8 will compete on February 15, 2008. Both age groups will compete in the Finals competition to be held on February 21, 2008. All rounds take place at the Liberty Science Center from 3:00 – 6:00 p.m.

The Jersey City Division of Cultural Affairs, in collaboration with the Jersey City Afro American Historical Museum, will present "Drum Talk", a celebration of the contributions of Africans and African-Americans through the history of the rhythm of the drums.
